WEEKLY NEWS

Happy New Year! I hope that you all had a lovely Christmas together with family and friends. This week we started our new term with children in each class thinking about peace. On the 1st January it was World Peace day so our children learned about what that day symbolises and created peace chains that we linked together at the end of the day and had a short celebration of their work and shared a time in prayer to ask for peace around the world.

On Tuesday we also had a whole school Mass and celebrated the Epiphany.

On Wednesday our GIFT team visited Coventry Cathedral with the GIFT team from Corpus Christi. Again the theme was peace and the children enjoyed a guided tour of the Cathedrals and learned all about the signs of peace that are present there. It was really lovely to spend time with our Parish school.

Have a lovely weekend.
