CHILDREN IN NEED

Thank you so much to each of you who contributed to the Children in Need appeal. We have raised an incredible £179.00 which we will forward to the charity. As always, your generosity amazes us. We have spoken to the children today about being grateful for what they have, and tonight when they watch children in need, they might be made even more aware of children in our country and across the world who are currently experiencing extremely difficult lives. Even Banjo got into the spirit of things by wearing something spotty.

REMINDERS

Can we please request that children do not wear false nails to school., even if it is non-uniform day. They are not appropriate for school ever, but particularly for young, primary aged children. If they get accidentally pulled off they can cause great distress and hurt. If you think they are OK for young children to wear, please keep them for the weekend and ensure they are removed for the new week.

THE SUN—BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS

If you, or anyone you know, reads The Sun newspaper, can you please collect the tokens relating to books for school. They can be collected between now and the 18th January. If we manage to collect enough tokens, we will be able to receive £600 of books for our school which are always needed. As I have said before, we have to spend an astonishing amount of money on home reading books. If I could plea to people again to look after the books that the children take home it would really help us.

MOVIES AND MUNCHIES

Quick reminder that our first 'Movies and munchies' evening will be taking place for the KS1 children next Wednesday. They do not need to be collected at the end of the school day—staff will take them straight down to the hall. We will provide them with their food and a drink but they are able to purchase items for the tuck shop, if they wish. We hope they enjoy the first event we have hosted like this for a few years now. There are still tickets available if anyone would like to buy one.

RADIO PLUS

Today, members of our choir went to Radio plus to record some Christmas songs with Mrs Maguire and our music teacher, Mrs Ball. This was a wonderful opportunity for our young people and they had a wonderful time both with the singing aspect, but also whilst being interviewed by the radio show presenters. We do not know yet when our children's voices will be heard on the radio, but as soon as we have been given the date we will share it with you. We do know that once the date has been decided, it will be played at 9.30, meaning we can enjoy the recording as a whole school. We cannot wait to hear them. Huge thanks to Mrs Ball and Mrs Maguire for taking them.

“Love one another, as I have loved you, in our home, school and parish families.”

Well done to all of our wonderful stars this week.
